A NOTABLE EVENT

Will Be the State Convention of the Christian Churches Now Being Held In this City.

The annual State Convention of the Christian Church of Kentucky is now convening in the new and magnificent Christian Church building, in this city, and will be in session throughout the week.

This is expected to be the largest meeting of the church ever held in Kentucky, and the good people of our city have made ample preparation for the entertainment of all delegates and other visitors.

Friday has been set apart for the celebration of the centennial of the old Cane Ridge Church, known as the "Cradle of the Christian Denomination," and situated in that portion of Bourbon county justly and truly termed "The Garden Spot of the World." The Centennial Day exercises will be held in a beautiful woodland near the historic church building in which Alexander Campbell, the founder of the denomination, expounded the gospel on numerous occasions. On this day and occasion there will be set an old-fashioned dinner.
